

Helpful Links: CRSS/CPRS Certification Process

IDHS Recovery Support Services Website

Homepage for our team; a collection of links for CRSS/CPRS and related resources.

Illinois Model: CRSS and Illinois Model: CPRS

Both “Illinois Model” documents include full ICB policies and procedures for earning and maintaining the credential, including:

- Explanation of the credential
- Minimum requirements
- Fee schedule
- Application process
- Continuing Education Units (CEUs)
- Performance domains/core functions

CRSS & CPRS Application To-Do List

A suggested timeline for completing the application process (to be adjusted based on individual need).

Comparing the CRSS and CPRS

This table shows the many similarities and minor differences between the two credentials.

CRSS Competencies and CPRS Competencies

Lists of the tasks and areas of knowledge in which CRSS/CPRS professionals are expected to be competent.

CRSS & CPRS FAQs

A collection of frequently asked questions about the CRSS and CPRS credentials.

CRSS and CPRS Credential Process

A bullet-pointed list that follows the process of earning and maintaining the credentials.

Resources for Education Hours

A list of websites that provide online training relevant to recovery support.

CRSS Code of Ethics

The professional ethics agreed to during the application process (nearly identical for CPRS).

CRSS Provider Workbook

A guide for provider agencies who hire CRSS/CPRS professionals.